

TRAINING MANAGERS X 2

Based Crewe (2 stops from Liverpool, 3 from Manchester & Birmingham)

£26-35k + attractive benefits package

Virgin needs little introduction. Likewise Virgin Trains. Already a market leader in the travel sector we are a business that is committed to building a world class service focused on comfort, safety and style.

Our professional and passionate approach, which is ingrained in the Virgin culture, extends to how our training is conducted across all areas of the business. We're looking to drive the pace of change to ensure world class service delivery, and need like minded trainers to share our passion and join us on this journey.

As Training Manager you will join a highly energetic team. Your core focus will be to design, develop and deliver some of our challenging T&D programmes. This will be your opportunity to impact on over 3,000 employees and shape the experience of a new generation of rail passengers. You might be a highly skilled and experienced trainer, or be developing your skill and bursting with fresh ideas.

Virgin is an ideas business. We're all about delivering excellence through focusing on bringing out the best in our people, we're sure we'll be able to bring out the best in you.

To play your part in this onward journey please email your CV, advising of your current package, to our advising consultants on tmv@pursuitnha.com
