

Cuisine de France™

A passion for customer service and a hunger for success.

Cuisine de France, part of IAWS PLC, is the leading provider of food to go and in-store bakery solutions to the UK retail sector. Our success has been achieved by working in close partnership with our customers in every aspect of their food to go and in-store bakery proposition, including the training and execution of the offer in their stores.

Passionate and self motivated people, combined with award winning products and an unparalleled category proposition are the key elements of Cuisine de France's successful customer partnerships. If you can demonstrate that you have the passion to succeed and the skills to grow our customers' sales then we would love to meet you.

Regional Sales Manager

Wales & West – ideally located Newport, Cardiff or West Midlands | £Competitive

Through development of a highly-skilled team of Category Development Representatives you'll deliver ambitious growth plans through a diverse retail customer-base.

With a genuine love of achieving results through motivating others, you'll know exactly what it takes to lead and develop a successful team. An excellent communicator, with a keen eye for detail, you'll be comfortable implementing new ideas.

FMCG field management experience is essential.

Category Development Representative

London, Kent, South Coast, Devon & North East | £Competitive

You'll get to work with some of the best names in retail. Your role is to help them maximise their sales by creating a total customer experience. You will be their product and solutions specialist and will be provided with all the tools that you need to succeed.

You will be a results driven self starter who is totally customer focused. In this role you will be expected to take a real hands-on approach to developing your customers' business and growing their sales.
